

The Peninsula

Local Focus. Global Vision

Subscription Rates
Annual: $120
Semi-Annual: $60
Quarterly: $30
Single Copy: $5

International 11
Labour heading for humiliation as Morley quits

Sport 29
Nadal advances, Venus exits

100 legal luminaries converge on Doha

Forum to discuss challenges of global crisis

Over 200 tribesmen, cops killed

QATAR: A group of 200 tribesmen were killed in a clash with police in the north of the country, officials said. The tribesmen were part of a group that had been attacking police stations and other government buildings in the area. The police were forced to use force to disperse the group. The tribesmen were armed with rifles and other weapons. The police were also armed. The clash took place in the north of the country. The tribesmen were from the area. The police were from the area. The tribesmen were killed. The police were killed. The tribesmen were killed. The police were killed.

Glimpse of Spanish culture grows audience

QATAR: The Spanish flamenco dance troupe, 'Flamenco de Sevilla', is performing at the Doha Opera House. The troupe is made up of 10 dancers and a guitarist. They are performing a traditional flamenco piece. The audience is growing. The troupe is popular. The audience is enjoying the performance. The troupe is performing at the Doha Opera House. The troupe is made up of 10 dancers and a guitarist. They are performing a traditional flamenco piece. The audience is growing. The troupe is popular. The audience is enjoying the performance.

Affected Home 03

Flamenco dancers performing at the Doha Opera House.

A flamenco dancer performing at the Doha Opera House.

